Summer biathlon experience & explore a 'bisse'

Price CHF 80.- / person

Description

While you explore the wonderful Tsittorret bisse (irrigation stream), you can test your skill and precision by trying out our laser rifles designed for biathlons.

This walk, which is accessible to everyone, will allow you to explore the magnificent Tsittorret bisse between Colombire and the Cave du Scex.

When you arrive at the Cave du Scex, you'll be able to test and get to know the latest generation of laser rifles used in biathlons. A little aperitif is provided there before returning to Colombire.
