Escape from Alcatraz

Price from CHF 175.- / person

Description

This programme offers participants a stimulating and dynamic immersion on an escape theme. This means that participants, wearing prisoner uniforms, will have to find their sense of direction, avoid main lines and axes of communication, make decisions... because there are even simulated police patrols!

The exercise starts with the «prisoners» escaping from the vehicle transporting them, and finding themselves in a completely unknown place. Thankfully, the mysterious organisers of the escape have left some instructions and survival kits. From here, the chase is on...
